BRIAN GIMMILLARO

HEAD COACH • 32ND SEASON

LONG BEACH STATE, 1970

814-211 (.794)

Regarded as one of the top volleyball minds in the country, Brian Gimmillaro enters his 32nd season at Long Beach State in 2016. The Long Beach State graduate has continually taken the 49ers to new heights as one of the winningest and most successful volleyball programs over the past three decades. His dedication to the sport and his student-athletes was recognized most recently in December 2008, when Gimmillaro was part of the three-person class inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame, honoring individuals who have greatly contributed to the game of volleyball.

Because of Gimmillaro, Long Beach State has earned a place among the nation's elite. With three National Championships, eight Final Fours, 13 NCAA Regionals and 27 NCAA Tournament appearances to his credit, it is no wonder that Long Beach State enters every season as a national contender. Over the past 20 seasons, LBSU has won a national title, has appeared in four Final Fours and six NCAA Regionals. Over that time, the team record is an impressive 522-123, winning over 80 percent of its matches. With a 3-0 win over UC Davis in 2015, Gimmillaro became just the seventh active coach to reach 800 Division I wins and the 12th all-time to reach 800 wins all coming at Division I. He also became just the eighth coach in history to earn all 800 of those wins at one institution. Gimmillaro ranks 12th in all-time victories in Division I history, and his 814-211 all-time record stands as the No. 10 career winning percentage in Division I. With 25 wins in 2015, he jumped into the top-20 for career victories among all coaches in all divisions in NCAA history.

Against one of the toughest conferences in the country, the Big West, LBSU has won over 78 percent (410-114) of its matches under Gimmillaro, claiming 13 conference crowns. In 26 of the last 29 seasons, Gimmillaro's teams have won at least 20 matches.

In 2014, Gimmillaro led the Beach back into the NCAA postseason and a first round win over San Diego. Gimmillaro's 49ers posted a perfect 16-0 record in the Big West in 2014, becoming the fifth Long Beach State squad to accomplish the feat and 10th team in Big West history. Gimmillaro notched his ninth Big West Coach of the Year award while setter Jenelle Hudson garnered Big West Player of the Year honors and middle blocker Ashley Murray won Freshman of the Year honors. The trio led the Beach on a 17-match win streak and a national ranking as high as No. 15. LBSU won 25 games for the second straight season in 2015, finishing second in the Big West, and earning wins over nationally-ranked Loyola Marymount and San Diego.

But wins alone do not define Long Beach State's volleyball program. Former setter Keri Nishimoto was a two-time Academic All-American, following in the footsteps of another volleyball player, Anja Grabovac, who was an Academic All-American in 1999. Prior to the 2003 season, Gimmillaro was the sole recipient of the USA Volleyball All-Time Great Coach Award (in the Donald S. Shondell Contemporary Division). In receiving the award, Gimmillaro joined an elite group of volleyball coaches. Also in 2003, Gimmillaro was bestowed with the "Excellence in Leadership" award, presented by Leadership Long Beach. Gimmillaro is also a three-time National Coach of the Year, earning American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) National Coach of the Year honors in 1998 and ASICS Tiger National Coach of the Year accolades in 1989 and 1998. Also in 1999, Gimmillaro was named the U.S. Olympic Committee's Coach of the Year, the only non-Olympic coach such honored. In 1989, 1991, 1994 and 1997 Gimmillaro was named one of eight Regional Coaches of the Year. Gimmillaro has also earned Big West Coach of the Year honors nine times (2014, 2012, 2005, 2001, 1998, 1997, 1994, 1992 and 1991).

Gimmillaro's players are a testament to his program. In January of 2001, the NCAA released its 20th Anniversary team. Of the six players chosen, three were Gimmillaro's former players: Tara Cross-Battle, Danielle Scott-Arruda, and Misty May-Treanor. Those three players serve as a who's who of women's volleyball. All three were Olympians in Sydney in 2000 and Athens in 2004, all three were National Players of the Year and all three led the 49ers to a National Title. Gimmillaro has coached six AVCA National Players of the Year. Cross-Battle and May have each won the award twice, while Scott and Antoinette White each earned the honor one time. Cross-Battle is a former player-coach for the National team, a four-time Olympian and a two-time World Player of the Year. Scott-Arruda was named to a record fifth Olympic squad in 2012, the only player to have that honor in USA women's indoor volleyball history, passing Cross-Battle who represented Team USA four times. Finally, May-Treanor is regarded as the top beach volleyball player in the world.

Long Beach State continues to have a tradition of Olympic success from Gimmillaro's players. In 2012, three former 49ers claimed Medals in London. May-Treanor capped an unprecedented run in Beach Volleyball with her partner Kerri Walsh, capturing a third straight Gold Medal after winning in 2008 in Beijing and 2004 in Athens. Also, in women's volleyball, Scott-Arruda and Tayyiba Haneef-Park repeated as medalists after winning the Silver in Beijing, capturing another Silver Medal for the USA, in London. Those finishes followed the 2004 squad, where the 49ers had the most players from any college in Cross-Battle, Scott-Arruda, and Haneef-Park, as Cross-Battle was making her fourth Olympic appearance, setting a mark that was only passed in London by Scott-Arruda. In all, Gimmillaro's players have represented the United States in volleyball in each of the last six Olympiads prior to the Rio Games.

Gimmillaro's finest season came in 1998, when the 49ers became the first NCAA Division-I volleyball team ever to finish the season undefeated. The Beach captured their third National title in Madison, Wisconsin, finishing 36-0. The team also won National titles in 1993 and 1989. In 1989, it was the first Division-I Championship for Long Beach State in any sport. The Beach has reached eight NCAA Final Fours, participating in 1989, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1997, 1998, 1999 and 2001. Twice in the '90s the team reached three consecutive Final Fours, winning a National title during each of those runs. Twice the team has run the table during the regular season, during the NCAA Championship year of 1998 and in 2001.

What may be most impressive about the team's incredible run is how far it has come. When Gimmillaro started in 1985, he took over a team that had struggled in the late 1970's and early 1980's, and had not won a National title since 1972 and 1973. The team played in the Gold Mine, a small gymnasium in the middle of campus, which the team rarely filled. Today, the team is one of the nation's best, plays before large crowds at the Walter Pyramid, and continues to develop some of the best volleyball players in the country.

Before coming back to his alma mater, Gimmillaro coached at perennial volleyball powerhouse Gahr High School in Cerritos, Calif. (1978-1985). During his tenure, he led his team to four CIF-Southern Section Championships (1978, 1979, 1983 and 1984) and Division-I State Championships in 1983 and 1984. In 1984 and 1985, Gahr won the CIF Southern Section 5-A Division Championship and was a Division-I state finalist. In eight years, Gimmillaro compiled a stellar 142-15 (.905) record. All told, Gimmillaro sent eight consecutive teams to the CIF Playoffs. A national No. 1 ranking in 1984 was a testament to his success at Gahr.

During the same period, Gimmillaro served as the business manager for the United States Women's Volleyball Olympic Team (1982-84). His duties included organization and development of publicity, budget, fundraising and promotion. He has also been the president and owner of the California Juniors Volleyball Club since 1978.

A voting member of the AVCA Top 25 Poll, Gimmillaro is a four-time Coach of the Year Award winner from the Long Beach Century Club, and in 1992, the Century Club bestowed on Gimmillaro its Michael Brian Warren award for outstanding contribution to furthering the goals of women's athletics. He was inducted to the Century Club Hall of Fame along with May-Treanor and Scott-Arruda in 2013. Gimmillaro received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Long Beach State in 2016, the university's highest alumni honor.

Gimmillaro graduated from Long Beach State in 1970 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics. He has two children: a son, Stefan, and daughter, Lauren.

1989 NCAA CHAMPIONS

It was a storybook season for the 49ers in 1989 as Long Beach State captured its first ever NCAA Championship. In fact, it was the first NCAA Division I Championship by any sport at the school. The 49ers finished the season at 32-5 after compiling a 13-5 mark in the tough Big West conference.

Leading the way was first-team All-America selection Tara Cross. Cross, who was named the AVCA Co-Player of the Year along with Tee Sanders-Williams of Hawaii, tallied a school-record 779 kills on the season. LBSU defeated San Diego State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament 15-7, 15-7, 15-10. From there it was on to the Northwest Regional in Stockton. LBSU earned a tough 15-11, 9-15, 15-12, 15-9 win over Pacific in the semifinals and then defeated No. 1-ranked Hawaii 11-15, 15-13, 10-15, 15-8, 15-10 to advance to its first-ever NCAA Final Four.

Once in Honolulu, the 49ers disposed of upstart Texas-Arlington in the semifinals 15-6, 11-15, 15-10, 15-7. That set up a championship match with Nebraska, an easy 3-0 winner over UCLA in the other semifinal. With Tara Cross nailing 20 kills and a .529 hitting percentage for the match the 49ers easily downed the Huskers 15-12, 15-0, 15-6. The 49ers hit .366 (42-12-84) for the match and limited Nebraska to a .000 hitting percentage (30-30-102).

The 49ers went 32-2 during the regular season and won the Big West Conference championship with a 17-1 mark. LBSU won its final 16 matches of the season.

In the first round of the NCAA Tournament The Beach downed George Washington 15-3, 15-8, 15-5. In the championship match LBSU met Penn State. Penn State had downed BYU in four games to reach the title match. ## 1998 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Senior setter Misty May led the 49ers to NCAA history as they became the first team to finish a season undefeated, at 36-0, as The Beach captured the 1998 NCAA Championship with an exciting five-game win over Penn State. May, who was named the AVCA Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, keyed a 49er offense which finished second in the nation with its .338 hitting percentage. Long Beach won the 1998 Big West title as May and head coach Brian Gimmillaro were honored as Big West Player and Coach of the Year. Gimmillaro also earned his first AVCA Coach of the Year award. The 49ers breezed through their first five NCAA matches with 3-0 sweeps. In the national final vs. Penn State the 49ers and Nittany Lions battled for five games before the 49ers prevailed 15-3, 15-10, 13-15, 14-16, 15-12.  Second Team All-Big West Conference
 Big West Conference All-Freshman Team

A four-time Olympian (1992, 1996, 2000, 2004), a four-time All-American, two-time NCAA Player of the Year and the holder of almost every Long Beach State record, Tara Cross-Battle was the 49ers first NCAA Player of the Year and set the standard for those to follow. Cross-Battle led the 49ers to their first NCAA Championship with a 15-12, 15-0, 15-6 victory over Nebraska in the 1989 NCAA title match in Honolulu, Hawaii. The 49ers went 32-5 that season and navigated through a murderous NCAA Northwest Regional where they had to defeat No. 3 Pacific and No. 1 Hawaii just to make it to the Final Four. In January of 2001, Cross-Battle was named one of the greatest collegiate volleyball players ever, one of three Long Beach State players named to the six-member squad. In 2004 Cross-Battle became the first athlete (male or female) in USA Volleyball history to be named to four Olympic teams.

Cross-Battle earned her first NCAA Player of the Year honor in 1988 and then was selected as the NCAA

Co-Player of the Year in 1989, along with fellow Big West Conference stand-out Tee Williams.

At the 1989 Northwest Regional final, the 49ers thwarted the Wahine's hopes of reaching the Final Four in their hometown with a thrilling 11-15, 15-13, 10-15, 15-8, 15-10 win over the Rainbow Wahine. In that contest Cross-Battle recorded 29 kills, 16 digs and 10 blocks as the 49ers prevailed in the three-plus hour match.

14

At the Final Four the 49ers defeated Texas-Arlington in four games with Cross-Battle tallying 18 kills and 16 digs. In the national final vs. Nebraska, Cross-Battle had 20 kills and hit .529. She set a new NCAA record by totaling 126 kills throughout the 1989 NCAA Tournament. Cross-Battle concluded her stellar four-year career with 2,767 kills, the third-most in NCAA history. Her 5,694 total attempts and 1,578 career digs also place her first on the 49er career chart. She holds the top three single season kill marks, highlighted by 779 kills in the 1989 season, 12th-best in NCAA history. Despite the high number of attack attempts she hit for a very high percentage in her career, .344, to rank seventh on the LBSU career chart. In 1995, Cross-Battle won the FIVB's MVP Award (World's Best Player).

Antoinnette White

NCAA PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1991)

Antoinnette White capped a spectacular senior campaign in 1991 by leading Long Beach State to the NCAA Championship title match and earning AVCA National Player of the Year honors. White, a two-time first-team All-Big West selection and the 1991 Big West Player of the Year, was a second-team

All-America pick her junior year.

In 1991, White tallied 567 kills, the seventh-best single season mark in 49er history, and 68 service aces. The 49ers were 36-2 during the 1991 season and captured the Big West title with a 17-1 ledger. In the NCAA Tournament the 49ers defeated Northern Iowa (3-0), UC Santa Barbara (3-1) and Hawaii (3-2) to reach the Final Four, which was being held in Los Angeles at UCLA's Pauley Pavilion. In the national semifinals the 49ers downed LSU 15-13, 6-15, 15-10, 15-13 to reach its second NCAA title match. In the title match the 49ers dropped a heart-breaking five game decision to the Bruins, falling 15-12, 15-13, 12-15, 6-15, 11-15.

White finished her 49er career third on the all-time kill chart with 1,717 kills in just three seasons in a 49er uniform. Her 208 career service aces are the second most in school history, and she ranks seventh in career digs with 1,052.

Her 91 service aces in 1990 also still remain a single season school record.

1990

Big West All-Freshman Team

A first-team AVCA All-America selection, middle blocker Danielle Scott capped her senior campaign by being selected as the AVCA National Player of the Year and leading Long Beach State to the NCAA Championship. Scott led the 49ers to a 32-2 overall record and a 15-13, 12-15, 15-11, 16-14 win over Penn State in the national final in Madison, Wis. Scott had 21 kills in the final and spearheaded the 49ers to a 16-match win streak to close out the season.

Scott led Long Beach State to three straight Final Four appearances, culminating with the national title in 1993. In 1991 the 49ers fell to UCLA in the title match and in 1992 Stanford eliminated The Beach in the national semifinals. In January of 2001, Scott was named one of the greatest collegiate volleyball players ever -- (one of three Long Beach State players named to the six-member squad). In 2002, Scott was named the "Best Blocker" at the 2002 World Championships. In 2004 Scott was named to the Olympic roster in Athens, Greece. Scott was the only three-time Olympian on the roster (1996, 2000, 2004). Scott continued her Olympic success, joining fellow 49er Tara Cross-Battle in becoming just the second women's volleyball player to play in four Olympics, helping lead the US to a Silver Medal in Beijing.

The Long Beach State record book prominently displays Scott's name. Her 1,778 career kills ranks second-best in 49er history while her .421 career hitting percentage is the second highest mark in NCAA history (No. 1 on the 49er chart). She accumulated 604 career blocks at The Beach and she holds three of the top-seven single season attack percentage marks, highlighted by a school-record .452 percentage in the 1992 season.

Scott not only excelled in volleyball, but also in basketball and track and field. In the 1993-94 season Scott was named first-team All-Big West on the hardwood after averaging 17.4 points and a league-best 10.4 rebounds per game. With that honor she became the only Big West athlete to earn first-team all-league honors in two sports. In the spring she competed on the 49er track and field team. At the Big West Championships in May she participated in the long jump, high jump, triple jump and anchored the 4x100 meter relay team.

Misty May-Treanor

NCAA PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1997, 1998)

4-TIME OLYMPIAN - GOLD MEDALIST (2004, 2008, 2012)

What more can you say about the best women's collegiate volleyball player ever? Misty May closed out her fabulous four-year career at Long Beach State by capturing every individual honor available in leading the 49ers to a perfect 36-0 mark and the 1998 NCAA Championship. She capped her phenomenal season by winning the 1998-99 Honda-Broderick Cup, an award which is presented annually to the nation's outstanding collegiate woman athlete and selected by a national vote involving the more than 900 NCAA-member schools. She was just the second volleyball player to ever win the Honda-Broderick Cup Award and the first 49er to ever win the coveted honor. In 2004, May was inducted into the Long Beach State Athletic Hall of Fame.

A two-time American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) National Player of the Year selection, a two-time Volleyball Magazine National Player of the Year pick and a three-time Big West Conference Player of the Year selection, May quarterbacked a talented 49er squad to the first perfect record in NCAA history as The Beach defeated Penn State (15-3, 15-10, 13-15, 14-16, 15-12) in five games to win the national title, the program's third NCAA women's volleyball championship. In January of 2001, May was named one of the greatest collegiate volleyball players ever, one of three Long Beach State players named to the six-member squad.

May led the 49ers to back-to-back Final Four appearances and back-to-back undefeated Big West Conference championships (16-0) in 1997 and 1998. May entrenched her name in the LBSU record book with her 5,045 assists (2nd), 160 service aces (2nd), 1,277 digs (3rd), .334 hitting percentage (6th) and 16 career "triple-doubles", including six in her senior campaign alone.

Selected as the Co-MVP at the 1998 NCAA Championships, May recorded nine kills, 70 assists, 11 digs and four blocks in the win over Penn State. In the national semifinal win over Florida (15-2, 15-8, 15-10) she had her sixth "triple-double" of the season with 11 kills, 15 digs and 32 assists.

Since leaving The Beach, May has racked up numerous awards and accomplishments. She went on an unprecedented 90-match winning streak with teammate Kerri Walsh in 2003-2004, winning 15 major international titles. Her successful career reached the ultimate highlight when she won the Gold Medal in Beach Volleyball (with teammate Kerri Walsh) in the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens. May and Walsh became the first female Americans to win a Gold Medal at the Olympics in volleyball history, and repeated as a Gold Medalist with Walsh in the Beijing Olympics in 2008 and the London Olympics in 2012.

TAYYIBA HANEEF-PARK

Long Beach State alumnae have had a long history of success after their time with the 49ers. On the beach, indoors, or leading from the sidelines, former Long Beach State standouts are making their mark on volleyball even after their time with the 49ers. Two-time NCAA Player of the Year Misty May-Treanor was one of the most dominant players in the world in beach volleyball, a four-time Olympian and a three-time Gold Medalist with partner Kerri Walsh. May-Treanor retired from volleyball after winning the pair won their third Olympic Gold in Beach Volleyball.

Other Olympians in 2012 included Danielle Scott-Aruda, who set an American record by heading to her fifth Olympic games. With her fifth Olympic appearance, Scott-Aruda passed fellow former 49er Tara Cross-Battle, who represented Team USA four times. Tayyiba Haneef-Park also made her third trip to the Olympics with Team USA. Long Beach State players continue to populate the professional leagues throughout the world as well.

Taking the lessons learned from the coaching staff at The Beach, former 49ers are also making a name for themselves on the sidelines. Former 49er Erika (Chidester) Dillard joined the Long Beach State staff in 2009, while Prentice (Perkins) Lewis and Traci Dahl are leading squads of their own. A number of 49er greats are working as assistants throughout collegiate volleyball.

LBSU PRESIDENT DR. JANE CLOSE CONOLEY

Jane Close Conoley, Ph.D. was selected by The California State University (CSU) Board of Trustees in January 2014 as the newest president of California State University, Long Beach (CSULB) and officially took office on July 15. Conoley is the first woman to be appointed president of CSULB and the seventh president overall in the 65-year history of the campus.

Immediately prior to coming to CSULB, Conoley served as dean of the Gevirtz Graduate School of Education at the University of California, Santa Barbara (UCSB). She also served from November 2012 to August 2013 as the interim Chancellor of UC Riverside.

Since 2006, along with serving as dean, Conoley was a professor of counseling, clinical and school psychology. Prior to her service at UCSB, she served as dean and professor of educational psychology at Texas A&M University (1996-2005) and associate dean for research at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's Teachers College (1989-94). In addition, she held faculty positions at Texas Woman's University and Syracuse University.

Conoley earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from the College of New Rochelle and a Ph.D. in school psychology from the University of Texas at Austin.

Conoley is the author or editor of 21 books and more than 100 chapters, refereed journal articles and technical reports. Her areas of primary interest are interventions with children with disabilities—especially serious emotional disturbance and aggressive children and youth—and family intervention. Her most recent work investigates the application of the science of positive psychology to educational settings.

One example is her co-authorship with A. P. Goldstein, of Student Violence Intervention: A practical handbook and Student Aggression: Prevention, management and replacement training. She has also co-authored books concerning home/school collaboration (with S. Christenson), family assessment (with E. Werth), and school consultation (with C. Conoley). Her most recent book with Collie Conoley is Positive Psychology and Family Therapy (Wiley, 2009).

Conoley is also well known for her work in psychological and educational measurement and served for 12 years as an editor of the Mental Measurements Yearbook series published by the Buros Institute of Mental Measurements. She has been the principle investigator (P.I.) on several federally funded projects aimed at developing better school-based approaches to helping children with emotional and behavioral disorders. She also has been the P.I. on federal and state initiatives to improve teacher quality especially in science and mathematics education. Conoley remains very interested in working with schools to increase the engagement of low income children of color with academic success and educational attainment. She has presented papers and lectured throughout the world to educational and mental health professionals on these topics.

Conoley has won university-level teaching and professional organization service awards and has been very active in leadership positions in the American Psychological Association (APA) and has served on national boards including teacher recruitment (College Board) and zero tolerance discipline policies (APA). She has also served on the executive committees of the national education deans' associations such as CADREI and LEARN.

In her role as dean of the Gevirtz Graduate School of Education, Conoley oversaw the APA accredited combined program in professional psychology—one of only a handful of such programs in the United States.

She was the chair of the UC System-wide Science and Mathematics Initiative Executive Committee and participated in the development of a UC Santa Barbara campus-wide strategy to increase the quality, quantity and diversity of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics majors who choose to pursue a career in teaching. In this role she developed new links with regional community colleges, area business, industry, non-profits and philanthropy, and new relationships on campus among the colleges and the large UC Santa Barbara interdisciplinary science and engineering research centers.

Founded in 1949, CSULB enrolls some 35,500 students annually, making it one of the largest four-year universities in California and the nation. Students are served by more than 2,100 faculty members within the university's eight colleges, which offer 85 baccalaureate degrees, 64 master's degrees and four doctoral degrees.

INTERIM ATHLETIC DIRECTOR CINDY MASNER

The longest tenured employee at Long Beach State, Cindy Masner began working with the athletics department during her undergraduate time as a student-athlete, and has spent over 30 years within the department as a senior administrator. In July of 2016, she was hired as the Interim Athletic Director for the second time while a national search is performed to hire the position.

Masner remains the sport supervisor for 10 programs at Long Beach State, and also oversees the internal operations of the department, including compliance, sports medicine and the strength and conditioning program.

A tremendous administrator, Masner also serves as the primary officer for gender equity on the CSULB campus, and has served on numerous NCAA and conference selection, oversight and rules committees as well as acting as an NCAA site representative for the NCAA Tournament.

A four-year softball letterwinner with the 49ers, Masner started working at Long Beach State in 1981, working in the ticket office before eventually moving into her current position. She also spent 10 months as the department's interim Athletics Director between the departure of Bill Shumard and the hiring of Vic Cegles.

A member of NACWA, Masner is the Chair-Elect of the CSULB President's Commission on the status of women, and is the Deputy Title IX coordinator for Athletics.

OUR CITY

California's seventh largest city, Long Beach is situated about a half-hour south of Los Angeles. First settled in 1784 as part of a large Spanish land grant, this seaport city of 465,576 is one of the most unique cities in the Southland.

The city of Long Beach averages 345 days of sunshine per year, making it ideal for the active, outdoor lifestyle. The beach city is located about 20 miles south of downtown LA and is bordered to the south and east by the idealic beaches and attractions of Orange County.

LONG BEACH

This Southern California coastal city's got it all: art districts, eclectic shopping, nightlife, attractions, and of course, the beach. Long Beach is home to a variety of outstanding cultural arts and music festivals and world-class sporting events. The city is centrally located from all the major Southern California attractions, making it an ideal location for a top-notch university. There's always something to do.

BELMONT SHORE

A trip down Second Street in Belmont Shore is like stepping back in time. The quaint, tree-lined street has that old Main Street feel and is home to a variety of restaurants, salons and specialty stores. It is also where the Belmont Car Show, the largest one-day car show in the West Coast, and the Belmont Shore Christmas Parade take place. This beachside shopper's paradise is where you may go to relax and enjoy the pace of a true coastal community.

LONG BEACH NIGHTLIFE

It's simply impossible to talk about the Long Beach nightlife without mentioning Pine Avenue. The four-block enclave of fine dining and nightclubs makes it a magnet for would-be revelers. Roaming crowds, cafes and pulsating music adds to the energy that can only be experienced in this downtown area. It is a celebration of the world's culture and ethnicity.

WALTER PYRAMID

The Walter Pyramid has played host to several NCAA sponsored events including numerous women's volleyball matches, the 2001 and 2003 Men's Volleyball Championships and the 2003 NCAA Women's Volleyball Regionals. The venue has also served as the host site for the NBA Summer Pro League and CIF Basketball Playoffs. It's also the site of many commercials and feature films.

The Walter Pyramid is believed to be the largest space-frame structure in North America. The building's infrastructure utilizes 18,000 steel tubes and connection modules, joined by more than 160,000 three-quarter inch bolts. If the tubes were laid end-to-end, they would form a pipe span 26 miles long.

ABOUT WALTER PYRAMID

The home of Long Beach State basketball and volleyball for over 15 years, the Walter Pyramid has become a nationally recognized icon for the university and the city of Long Beach. Because of its dramatic appearance, its unique multi-purpose capability and its lure for television production, the Walter Pyramid is one of the finest collegiate athletic facilities in the western United States.

On March 5, 2005, the pyramid was officially named the Walter Pyramid, thanks to the generous donations presented to the university by Dr. Mike and Arlene Walter. Long-time supporters of the school, the Walters gift to athletics and academics was the largest single gift in LBSU Athletics history.

Officially opened on November 30, 1994, the Beach rolled to a 71-64 win over the University of Detroit before a crowd of 5,021 and an ESPN television audience.

The structure's distinctive cobalt blue exterior has permanently altered the city's skyline. It rises 18 stories above north campus and can be seen for miles in all directions. It has provided a quantum leap in both the image and effectiveness of the Long Beach State Athletics programs, with an immediate impact on LBSU's fan base, scholarship fundraising, recruiting and revenue generation. Nearly 200,000 visitors pass through the Walter Pyramid's entrances annually.

Designed by Long Beach architect Don Gibbs and built by the Nielson Construction Company of San Diego, The Walter Pyramid cost approximately $22 million. The 'Myd (as it is affectionately referred to by loyal fans) measures 345 feet on each side of its perfectly square base. Its floor space accommodates nine volleyball courts or three full basketball courts and four additional half basketball courts on the "activity" level.

One of three true pyramids in the United States (others are located in Las Vegas and Memphis), The Walter Pyramid's most unique feature is its cantilevered seating system, mounted on moveable platforms. When use of the floor level is required for physical education classes, each 81-ton seating platform can be raised hydraulically to expose over 39,000 square feet of flooring.

In the summer of 2014, the original beechwood flooring in the Pyramid was replaced with maple flooring. The main court underwent a redesign with the new floor being laid down (rendering seen to the left).

CHAMPIONSHIP FACILITIES

Long Beach State's facilities remain some of the best in the Big West and are competitive nationally while serving as the home of the LBSU sports teams. From the university's enduring icon, the cobalt-blue Walter Pyramid to the history and tradition of Blair Field, athletes that come to play at The Beach will showcase their skills in only the finest home stadiums.

WALTER PYRAMID

The Walter Pyramid has become a nationally recognized icon for the university and the city of Long Beach. Because of its dramatic appearance, its unique multi-purpose capability and its lure for television production, the Walter Pyramid is one of the finest collegiate athletic facilities in the Western United States.

One of three true pyramids in the United States, the Walter Pyramid measures 345 feet on each side of its perfectly square base. The most unique feature is inside, where its cantilevered seating system can be raised hydraulically to expose over 39,000 square feet of maple flooring.

RHODES TENNIS CENTER

Long Beach State's new tennis facility, opened in 2008, serves as the tennis team's home and was remodeled following a gift from former 49er tennis player and alum Terry Rhodes.

GEORGE ALLEN FIELD

Named after former LBSU football coach George Allen, the field is the home of Long Beach State women's soccer, and features lights and new scoreboard installed in 2012.

JACK ROSE TRACK

Long Beach State's Jack Rose Track recently underwent a multi-million dollar renovation. The completed project showcases a facility that is among the very best in the United States. The centerpiece is the track and its design features. When all phases are completed, the stadium will boast seating for 5,000 spectators and allow for additional team and student seating. With this, and other important elements accomplished, this redesign will complete the vision of a national-class facility that can play host to major invitational meets as well as NCAA and U.S. Track and Field championships.

BLAIR FIELD

Home of the Dirtbags since 1993, Long Beach's Blair Field is a perfect combination of tradition and modern function. Built on the site of the former recreation park, home at times to the Chicago Cubs and Los Angeles Dodgers, Blair Field has hosted numerous teams and events such as the MTV Rock & Jock Softball Game and continues to receive start-of-the-art upgrades, including a new scoreboard installed in 2009.

KEN LINDGREN AQUATICS COMPLEX

Home of Long Beach State's men's and women's water polo, the facility was renamed following an extensive renovation following a major gift from long-time LBSU head coach Ken Lindgren.

LBSU SOFTBALL COMPLEX

The LBSU softball complex is the on-campus home to Long Beach State's softball team. It rests south to the southeast of Walter Pyramid and right next to George Allen Field.

VIRGINIA COUNTY CLUB & EL DORADO PARK

The home courses for Long Beach State's men's and women's golf teams aren't pictured here but are two of the best that Long Beach has to offer.

A CHAMPIONSHIP EDUCATION

- Directed by Sandra Shirley, the purpose of the Center is advising to ensure that each student-athlete is enrolled in appropriate courses leading to a degree while maintaining their eligibility.

- The Bickerstaff Center for Student-Athlete Academic Services has established itself as a unique and important asset in the lives of 49er student-athletes.

- The center's "Career Connection" program spotlights internships in the sports industry. They also offer a freshmen mentoring program which connects freshmen with veteran student-athletes.

- Each student-athlete has a file created and their progress is monitored throughout their education. He or she is aided in choosing a degree, developing proper study habits and keeping a balance between personal, scholastic and athletic lives.

- Student-athletes can choose from a multitude of renowned academic schools and 81 undergraduate degree programs. Programs in the colleges of business, physical therapy, art and engineering are nationally famous. The schools of communications, radio/television and education are also strong.

June 21, 2006 was the grand opening of the new Bickerstaff Student-Athlete Academic Center. Formerly known as the Center for Student-Athlete Academic Services, the new center nearly triples the size of the previous space. The center provides a top-of-the-line facility for our student-athletes to get the academic support and assistance they deserve.

The center is named after Glen and Debbie Bickerstaff of Los Alamitos (pictured at right), both loyal supporters of 49er athletics. The Bickerstaffs have been involved with Long Beach State for several years and have given nearly $1 million dollars in donations to the student-athlete scholarship program. They donated $625,000 for the Legacy campaign which went towards the naming of the new center. Their second legacy commitment was for $250,000 to help with the completion of the student-athlete strength and conditioning complex.

The Bickerstaff Academic Center provides quality academic services to 49er student-athletes. This includes advising, to ensure that each student-athlete is enrolled in the appropriate courses so they may earn their degrees while maintaining athletic eligibility. The Bickerstaff Academic Center is geared to maximize student-athletes' chances for classroom success through a developmental advising program integrating academic, student, and athletic assistance. The opening of the center provides 49er student-athletes the best academic support facility in the Big West Conference.

BEACH STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

In 2012, Long Beach State Strength and Conditioning moved into the Walter Pyramid, providing a better and more cohesive training experience with a move into a larger and closer facility to the majority of the teams at Long Beach State.

Overseeing the program are head strength and conditioning coach Jamie Hiegel and assistant coaches Chris Whittle, Frank Ramirez and Keegan Knoll. At Long Beach State, athletes are exposed to techniques that will help build a character foundation necessary to succeed in life through hard work, pride, dedication, and a commitment to excellence. All training movements are sport specific to copy a student-athlete's performance during competition. Programs are specifically designed to promote injury prevention by pre-habilitating the student athlete and allow them to match the demands of their sport.

Student-athletes' medical and injury needs are the responsibility of a highly qualified and diverse professional staff. The daily injury evaluation, management, treatment, rehabilitation, and first aid of our student-athletes is the responsibility of both head athletic trainer Jarrod Spanjer and rest of the sports medicine staff. Assisting Spanjer are assistant athletic trainers Christine Turnbull, Jessica Jewell and Patrick Talley, along with three graduate students. There are also numerous athletic training students who work under the guidance of the Certified Athletic Trainers.

Since 1987, Dr. Larry Drum has been acting as the team physician for all LBSU student-athletes and Dr. Alexandra Chrysanthis joined in practice with Dr. Drum and assists him in providing care. Since 1992, Dr. Peter Kurzweil has served as our volunteer orthopedic surgeon for all student-athletes. The physicians attend many of our home competitions and are readily available for first aid and diagnostic needs on site. There are various other highly-skilled physicians, podiatrists, and dentists who regularly volunteer their services to our student-athletes.

Certified Athletic Trainers (ATC) are on hand for all home practices and competitions and, also, for many of the away competitions that our student-athletes participate in to assist in treatments should a problem occur. LBSU athletics provides student-athletes with a state-of-the-art athletic training facility located adjacent to the Gold Mine Gymnasium and an additional, smaller treatment facility located on the playing floor of the Walter Pyramid. With well-equipped facilities and knowledgeable and capable personnel on staff, a sick or injured student-athlete at Long Beach State is assured of quality treatment.
